

RESOLUTION 2011-10

A JOINT RESOLUTION BY AND BETWEEN THE:

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND
BOROUGH COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF CARLISLE;
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF MIDDLESEX TOWNSHIP;
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF NORTH MIDDLETON TOWNSHIP; AND,
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF SOUTH MIDDLETON TOWNSHIP

REQUESTING OFFICIALS AT LOCAL, STATE AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENTS
TO RETAIN THE UNITED STATES ARMY HERITAGE EDUCATION CENTER
IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY,
CARLISLE, PENNSYLVANIA

Whereas, the Carlisle Barracks, United States Army War College and United States Army Heritage Education Center are co-situated on approximately 673 acres in Central Cumberland County, Carlisle, Pennsylvania; and,

Whereas, the combined presence of the Carlisle Barracks, U.S. Army War College, and the U.S. Army Heritage Education Center has proven beneficial in many ways to all municipalities and residents including, but not limited to, the Borough of Carlisle, Middlesex Township, North Middleton Township, and South Middleton Township; and,

Whereas, while each of these military institutions has respectively played a pivotal role in the development, education, and support of military leaders and the Department of Defense, the U.S. Army Heritage Education Center (USAHEC) is dedicated to the overall education and preservation of the legacy of those who have served our Great Nation; and,

Whereas, the USAHEC and its directorates are touted as one of the finest museums and research complexes whose united mission is to educate, preserve, and interpret facets of the United States Army including, but not limited to, the Army's culture, heritage, and artifacts; but more significantly, the American Soldier; and,

Whereas, closing the United States Army Heritage Education Center, or any of its Carlisle directorates, will have a significant and adverse impact on the economies of those located in Central Pennsylvania, independently and collectively.

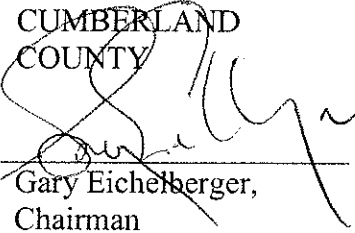

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the undersigned as representatives of our respective municipalities, hereby support the United States Army Heritage Education Center and its directorates and urge the Department of Defense to retain this fine institution at its current location, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.
