

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Middlesex Township Planning Commission will consider a draft of a proposed zoning ordinance for Middlesex Township at its regular meeting being held on Monday February 12, 2024 at 7:00 p.m. prevailing time, at the Middlesex Township Municipal Building located at 350 N. Middlesex Road, Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The Planning Commission will also consider the draft zoning ordinance at its 7:00 p.m. meetings on February 26, 2024, March 11, 2024 and March 25, 2024 and possibly other meetings of the Planning Commission, as the Planning Commission may decide and its posted agendas shall note. The Planning Commission shall after considering the draft zoning ordinance at its public meetings present the proposed zoning ordinance with its recommendations and explanatory materials to the Board of Supervisors for the Supervisors' consideration.

The public is invited to attend the Planning Commission meetings as the Planning Commission considers the draft ordinance. Public comments concerning the draft of the proposed zoning ordinance may be made to and submitted to the Planning Commission in person or in writing. A complete copy of the draft zoning ordinance being considered by the Planning Commission is available on the Middlesex Township website at <https://middlesextwp.com/>. If you are a person with a disability and wish to attend the meeting scheduled as noted above and require an auxiliary aid, service or other accommodation to participate, please contact Middlesex Township at 844-256-7024 to discuss how Middlesex Township may best accommodate your needs.

Eileen Gault, Township Secretary